Chamber takes survey, seeking shopping unity

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, in answer to complaints of the varying store hours employed by village businesses and the loss of local business to nearby malls, is conducting its own survey.

The Chamber feels that the village retailers are losing business to nearby malls where all the stores open and close at the same time. The fact that the malls are open until 9 p.m. is also considered to cause a serious cut into village business.

When most stores are not open later except for Friday evenings, double income families and commuters who get home long after present closing hours cannot use Antioch's shopping facilities, even if they want to and they are prone to head for the malls.

The Chamber feels that most of Anti-och's residents are not aware what hours various village stores are open or closed.

The Chamber is hoping that the survey might result in having uniform opening and closing shopping hours among the retailers.

The survey asks area residents what they consider to be the most convenient shopping hours.

Area residents are asked to let the Chamber know what day of the week is most convenient for them to shop and what time is most convenient. The Chamber would also like to know the respondent's gender and age.

Those who prefer filling out an official survey blank can stop by the Chamber office near the police station on Main St. and do so.

VFW will fete vets Nov. 11

Antioch VFW Post 4551 will be having its Armistice Day program at Hillside Cemetery on Friday, Nov. 11 at 10:45 a.m. The public is invited to attend and honor America's war dead on President's Day.

Village Homes now for single families

by GLORIA DAVIS

Al Little, developer of the 190-acre Village Homes subdivision off of Deep Lake Rd., appeared before the Antioch Village Board with a change in the plans for his subdivision.

Little's new plans show approximately 380 single family dwellings, deleting the condos and commercial buildings included in the original plan.

The Antioch Planning Commission had previously turned down plans for the multi-family and commercial buildings (hotel-convention center).

Little's next step, after board approval, is to return to the planning commission.

Plans for the Tiffany Court Condominiums are also due to be returned to the planners with the board's recommendation agreeing with the planners' and adding a recommendation for a sidewalk along Tiffany Rd. and the widening of the street to 28 feet.

Interior sidewalks for the kids that go to Antioch Grade School were also discussed. In other business the board:

— approved the promotion of Antioch Police Sgt. Charles Watkins to the rank of Lieutenant.

— hired Chris Buxton as the new community service officer at a starting salary of $7.38 per hour.

— came out of executive session with approval of a new village insurance contract with Aetna Ins., putting on a freeze to the cost of the insurance for all village employees which includes family coverage.

Going into the executive session, Trustee Robert Wilton had objected to only members of the public works department not paying the increase because they were exempt from an earlier freeze on village paying insurance increases.

The board, upon Supt. of Public Works Tim Wells' recommendation, also approved the purchase of a $15,000 separator for the sanitary plant.

After OK'ing a beer license for the new mini-mart going up on North Ave., the board put a freeze on any additional issuance of such package liquor licenses until after the 1990 census.

Based on population, another license can not be issued until the village's population reaches 5,600.

In other action, the village board approved a request from the Ill. Public Action Council to conduct a door to door canvass in the village from Nov. 5 through Dec. 3 soliciting support and donations for the Campaign For Toxic Safety.

Urban League dinner

WADSWORTH—John C. Kane, president of Chemical and Agricultural Products Division at Abbott Laboratories, will be the guest speaker for the Lake County Urban League's 22nd Anniversary Dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 18, at the Midlane Country Club, 14565 Yorkhouse Rd. in Wadsworth. Kane, of Long Grove, is a graduate of West Chester State College. He is a board member of the Lake Forest Graduate School of Management, First Federal Savings and Loan of Waukegan, and the National Agricultural Chemicals Assn. For ticket information call (312)249-3770.

Where the crime is LINDENHURST—Police are touting new FBI figures on violent crimes like burglary, arson, rape, theft, burglary and arson showing a 3.1 percent decline for 1987. Police Chief Gary Kupsak said this compares with increases of 11.8 percent in Grayslake, 19.6 percent in Fox Lake, 36.4 percent in Lake Villa and 42.9 percent in Antioch.

Mazer damage set

GURNEE—Gurnee Fire Chief Sam Dada has estimated that the damage done by the explosion and fire last week at Mazer Chemical Inc. in Gurnee is $250,000. Company and fire officials alike praised cooperation received in fighting the explosion and fire. Two workers injured in the incident have been released from St. Therese Medical Center.

OK resolution

NORTH CHICAGO—North Chicago City Council members have approved an indignant resolution for permanent financing for a multi family housing development developed by E.J. Plesko Associates.

Big leak is mystery

LINDENHURST—Somewhere in the village sewer system is a big leak—about 3 million gallons per day. The village is spending $10,000 to find the source. Officials believe it is more than hundreds of sump pumps turning on simultaneously during a rainstorm or sports fans going to the bathroom during intermission of a televised Chicago Bears game.

Mayor ready to run

LAKE VILLA—Mayor Joyce Frayer has enough signatures on separate petitions to run for either her present job or trustee. "If the right person runs for mayor I'll try for my old job of trustee," the mayor of six years said. "That way I'll get my vote back," she said of meetings she now quarterback.

Child care wins OK

GURNEE—A new child care center will be opening in Gurnee later this month.

The Gurnee Village Board granted a special use permit to Wee Care's Toys & Tykes, Inc. which plans to operate a child care center at University Ave. and Waveland Ave. Owner Kim Yost told the board that plans are to open the facility on Nov. 28.

Adopt new goals

GRAYSLAKE—Grayslake Community High School's Board of Education has adopted new goals for the 1988-89 school year. The goals, which include reducing failing grades by two percent, will be assigned to Supt. Dr. Griff Powell, Principal Charles Roberts and Business Mgr. David Bonner.

Business misgiving

LAKE VILLA—Doubts are being expressed by Mayor Joyce Frayer about an economic development committee proposed by Mayor Robert Ratch of Lindenhurst. While the two villages have much in common, Lake Villa has much more growing to do, Frayer said. This growth will not happen until the village gets additional treatment plant capacity, either by connecting to Fox Lake or a revolutionary land-treatment system with golf course now being studied.

Petrick to resign

ROUND LAKE BEACH—Round Lake Heights Mayor Claire Petrick has confirmed that she would be offering a conditional resignation at the next village board meeting. Three Round Lake Heights trustees have initiated action against the mayor challenging her residency.

Back to planners

ANTIOCH—The Antioch Village Board sent two developments back to the Antioch Planning Commission. Plans for the Tiffany Courts Condominium project goes to the commission with board recommendation addition to the planners recommendation that the developer put sidewalks along Tiffany Rd. and widen the streets to 28 feet. Al Little appeared before the board with a change in his Village Homes subdivision plans calling for approximately 382 single family homes instead of condos and commercial buildings. His plan also will go back to the planners. The planning commission had previously turned down Little's plan which originally included condos and a large commercial complex.

Ruling aids village

MUNDELEIN—A ruling has been offered in Lake County Circuit Court on a case where Mundelein and Long Grove have considered annexing the same pieces of property, and this ruling means that Mundelein will almost certainly be able to obtain rights to annex the land, according to Village Atty. Charles Marino.

Bonds proposed

LINCOLNSHIRE—Members of the Dist. 103 building and site committee have agreed to recommend to the Board of Education several capital improvement additions which would be financed by $900,000 in working cash bonds. Tentative recommendations will be heard at a meeting at 8 p.m. on Nov. 14 at Daniel Wright Middle School.

Land-use plan aired

LAKE ZURICH—The village's revised comprehensive land-use plan was given an airing in the council chambers, with a dozen citizens taking to the floor when the hearing was opened to the public. The plan includes 250,000 sq. ft. of stores as well as apartments. The plan includes residential, commercial, industrial, public and quasi-public construction.

Village plans lottery

ISLAND LAKE—If an ordinance to license the village to conduct a lottery is approved, plans call for the Environmental Committee to issue 1,000 tickets at $12 each for 12 months, starting January 1989. The holders of the 1,000 tickets will then be able to participate in the 12 monthly drawings to be conducted by the village with four prizes given away each month.

Board OK'd raises

COUNTY—Lake County Board members voted themselves a salary increase for their job in representing Lake Counties from $18,000 to $23,000 a year by 1992. Also awarded a raise was the county chairman, who will make $40,000 a year. He also acts as the liquor commissioner for the county. Approving the proposal was by Carol Calabrese of Libertyville and Gerald Beyer of Wauconda. John Reindl of Mundelein and C. Richard Anderson of North Barrington opposed them.

Antioch talent galore as 'Footlights' ends

by GLORIA DAVIS

For two weekends in November, for the last seven years, there is nary a parking place to be found in the area of St. Peter's Church and School on those Friday and Saturday evenings when "Footlights," the largest fundraiser held by the parish annually, gets underway.

Amazingly, even though the event is no longer new, it still draws capacity crowds to most of its showrooms.

Where else can one see a tots' classroom turned into a sports bar, complete with sports video?

Where else is there a bank president and his wife (Randy and Jane Miles) singing songs from the smash Broadway hit, "Phantom of the Opera" as professionally done as that found in any Chicago club room, or a priest (Father Bob Tonnelli) having an obvious ball singing such unhyphenated songs as the theme from "Dirty Dancing?"

The entire "Grease" entourage spends a good part of the evening bringing back memories on the Stage of the Tropical Rock nightclub.

And the Rockettes have nothing on the chorus line dancing (straw hats, canes and all) of the AARP All Stars Band which draws standing applause in the main entertainment area.

Believe it or not, that glamorous room where lipsyncers reigned supreme, never stops serving its jammed clientele, both with libation and enjoyment, especially when a certain township board member (Homer LaPlant) and his lady friend (Shirley Jensen) test their memories.

Village Atty. Ken Clark is as good a dinner host as he is in front of a judge and jeweler Dennis Johnson guards his assigned door as faithfully as he does his jewelry.

And after all these years, it is no surprise that Dr. Jack Borini is as handy with a musical phrase as he is with a stethoscope.

The tale of Snow White was never as enjoyable (for adults that is) as in PM&L's version.

All this and much more can still be seen as "Footlights-'88" plays its final weekend on Friday, and Saturday night starting at 6 p.m., till —?

ACHS awards night Nov. 14

Antioch Community High School (ACHS) will present its annual fall sports award night at 7 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 14 in the north gym, 1133 Main St.

Parents are welcome to attend and refreshments will be served following presentation of the awards. Athletes from all fall sports will be included in this special event.

Santa is coming to town

On Nov. 25, at 6:30 p.m., Main St. in Antioch will become "Santa Claus Lane". Santa will be the grand marshal of the Antioch Thanksgiving/Christmas parade.

The parade will be "sliding" off the Antioch High School parking lot at 6:30 p.m. The procession will go up Main St. to Orchard St., where Santa will give the signal to turn on the Christmas trees at the village hall to officially start the 1988 Christmas season.

The parade will end at Santa's castle located on Toft St. where Santa will welcome all youngsters. Children will receive a gift from Santa.

During the Christmas season Santa's castle will be open Monday through Friday from 5 to 8 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Anyone interested in entering the Thanksgiving/Christmas parade should call the Village Parks and Recreation Dept. at (312) 395-2160 or stop by the village hall to pick up a parade entry form. Line-up at the high school parking lot will be at 6:10 p.m.

Along The Way With Annie Mae

One of Antioch's favorite citizens, William J. Petty, former county superintendent of schools, celebrated his 90th birthday Sunday and was feted with a party at the United Methodist Church.

Dropping in for a visit with our natty gentleman were long time friends from Antioch and the county and some area dignitaries.

State Rep. Bob Churchill brought George Bush's son Marvin, who wore a Chicago Bears jacket while on the local campaign trail.

Heard that although Antioch Twp. Republican Chairman Joanne Osmond tried to get an official greeting from the village together that didn't materialize, 35 residents did greet Mr. Bush and County Board Chairman and Antioch Twp. Sup. Jim Fields was among them.

Was noticing how pretty the locust trees lining our retail area look now that they are laden with sparkling Christmas lights.

Those trees that have gotten so big and really add to the village's appearance when they are in leaf are the fruits of efforts made by Bill Patterson of B. J.'s and the Chamber of Commerce and Bob Wilton when he was mayor back in the 1970's.

Congratulations to Charlie Watkins, our new police lieutenant.

Gen Milarski tells me that the ladies from St. Peters are busy with the hand-made items that make St. Peter's Christmas Bazaar so special.

Congrats are also due to Ted Jennings and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jennings. Ted, who is a senior English major at Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Mo., is one of 26 Culver students selected for inclusion in the 1989 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American College's and Universities."

Postmaster lists holiday mailing do's and don't's

Acrobatics instructors regularly remind their students to keep their tummies "tight" and "tucked". The same advice applies to preparing holiday parcels for mailing, says Antioch Postmaster Jerry Parish.

"All that's necessary is choosing sturdy cartons or boxes and sealing them smoothly and tightly with the proper tape," Parish says, adding that padded mailing bags work well for small items.

"Don't wrap cartons in bulky paper or tie them with string or twine," Parish continues. "The paper can tear and the twine can get tangled in our mail processing equipment."

"Also, using paper and string isn't necessary if you're using proper boxes or cartons. If you feel a need to wrap and tie a box, that may be a signal that you don't think the box is sturdy enough to begin with.

Your own return address and zip code should be in the upper left corner. And use smudge-proof ink.

What came on Nov. 9, as the rest of the country found out who the new president was—the third graders at Antioch Grade School counted the votes they had cast on Friday, Nov. 4, in their straw poll. Unofficially, we've been told the results were overwhelmingly for George Bush.

"It's not over till it's over," they always say in football, and it holds true yet for the Antioch Vikings.

In eighth grade they are Megan Bivona, Sara Garrison, Kelly Miller, Sarah Peterson, Kelly Seidler, Matt Bogenschutz, Adam Lips, Dan Nelson,

County rejects expansion bid from Waste Management

Waste Management, Inc. lost in two actions taken by the Lake County Board at its meeting last week.

The firm had applied for an expansion of its landfill operations facility south of Grayslake.

Waste Management at first requested its petition be withdrawn but the County Board rejected that request, according to member Norman Geary of Dist. 4. Geary said the firm could have won automatic citing if the board had not acted.

A judge ruled that Waste Management could not force the county to act.

The matter was not originally on the County Board agenda, but was placed on it before the meeting started.

The final vote on the application was 16 to 5.

Waste Management does have the option of taking the county to court.

Geary said the firm failed to meet five of the six criterion necessary for the approval of the expansion.

In an earlier story, it was incorrectly stated that ARF had asked for the expansion.

Teacher's smoke blamed for fouling air of room

To smoke or not to smoke, that is the question confronting the Lake Villa Grade School board.

Specifically, it concerns someone who does not like smoke, D. "Ronnie" Wray. She works in the copy room at Pleviak School.

This year the teacher's smoking lounge was moved from the lower level to a room next to where Wray works.

When she objected to smoke filtering into the copy room from next door, the temporary-type wall between the two was caulked and a deodorizer installed.

When this did no good, Wray appeared before the board of education. "I don't have smoke in my own house and I don't think I have to put up with it at work," she told the board. "I have to work in this environment for eight hours. I don't think it is good for my health." She asked that a window exhaust fan be installed.

Supt. of Schools Peter Palombi said such a fan would have an adverse effect on the school heating system. "I have looked at all possible solutions," he told the board at its Nov. 2 meeting. "I don't know anything further that can be done."

Last school year the smoking room was in a room in a remote corner of the basement. It was moved because the location was cold, damp, had no ventilation and a lighted cigarette could burn undetected. The new location is in a heavy traffic area, Palombi said, which provides an added measure of safety.

County Board, Forest Preserve jobs are on line

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Now that the dust has settled on the 1988 presidential election, voters can get ready for next big one affecting them. It is for chairman of two important county bodies: Lake County Board and Forest Preserve Dist.

Since voting for the cast of characters in the Nov. 8 election and two years before, all they have to do is sit back, wait until Monday, Dec. 5, and see where the dust settles on this one.

tion job in Chicago.

County Board members spent 24 hours trying to pick a successor. The vote stalled 12-12 on such candidates as Andrea Moore of Libertyville and Dist. 5, Audrey Nixon of North Chicago and Dist. 2 and C. Richard Anderson of North Barrington and Dist. 6.

Fields, who has been wearing the two hats of supervisor and County Board member for 10 years, was put forth as the compromise candidate. He has disap-

Here's how those races shape up:

Dist. 1: Forest Preserve Chairman Donald Strenger won re-election on Nov. 8 with 19,241 votes or 32 percent of those cast along with incumbent Deloris Axelrod of Highland Park with 23,864 votes or 40 percent of the vote. Other members are Richard "Rick" Price and Helen Belmont Amendola. Geary feels he can count on Amendola, with whom he has worked closely in the past year, and, Price. This is Strenger territory for the Forest Preserve chairmanship.

Dist. 2: Key to County Board chairmanship. This mostly-Democratic area saw incumbent Audrey Nixon returned to office this week with 6,354 votes or 25 percent of those cast along with newcomer

Debra Halas' 6,912 votes or 28 percent. Both are North Chicago residents. They join incumbents John Balen of North Chicago and Matthew Miholic of Lake Bluff. Geary could be favorable to the Democrats, however, Miholic is seen as a possible Democratic candidate in his own right. This district might support Moore for the Forest Preserve Dist. or anyone but Strenger.

Dist. 3: Lake County Republican Central Committee Chairman Robert Neal of Wadsworth survived a strong challenge for re-election this week with 11,978 votes or 27 percent of those cast along with incumbent Eleanor Rostron of Waukegan. Holdovers are Jim LaBelle and Samuel Payne, both of Zion. Although Neal will oppose defections, Geary feels he might get more than lip service from Payne and Rostron. The close-knit group will support Strenger for the Forest Preserve.

Dist. 4: Suzi Schmidt of Lake Villa Twp. lead the balloting on Nov. 8 with 18,134 votes or 36 percent of those cast. Fields was returned to office for his sixth term with 16,857 votes or 34 percent. Holdovers are Charlotte Kiesgen of Fox Lake and, of course, Geary. Schmidt is an avowed Geary backer. Kiesgen and Fields, naturally, are not. As for the Forest Preserve Dist., support is, likewise, split.

Dist. 5: This is the township of open-space champion F.T. "Mike" Graham. He supports Geary as do re-elected incumbents Andrea Moore of Libertyville with 25,354 votes and James Dolan, also of Libertyville, with 25,354 votes, both about 50 percent of those cast. They will return to office with Graham and Carol Calabrese, both of Libertyville. Moore would like to be the next chairman of the Forest Preserve Dist.

Dist. 6: Good. Newly-elected member Roberta "Bobbie" O'Reilly of Buffalo Grove got 27,340 votes or 41 percent of the total in this week's election and incumbent C. Richard Anderson of North Barrington came up with 26,490 or almost 40 percent. They like Geary as do holdovers Bruce Hanson of Lake Zurich and John Reindl of Mundelein. This area will go along with Moore for the Forest Preserve Dist.

The outcome will be decided in the next 30 days. "Politics makes strange bedfellows," and, in the case of the two chairmanships, anything can and probably will happen.

COUNTY BOARD DISTRICT MAP

This year's election for County Board chairman will be for the two-year job held by Jim Fields, supervisor of Antioch Twp. and Dist. 4 County Board member. He has been chairman for about 18 months.

Fields was the compromise candidate to succeed Jim LaBelle of Zion, Dist. 3 County Board member, who relinquished the post after six months to take a State Dept. of Transporta-pointed many by his lack of strong leadership.

That means, it may be time for a new face. Norman Geary, Avon Twp. supervisor and Dist. 4 County Board member for 24 years, is a declared candidate for the job. He served as chairman for two years from 1976 to 1978. Fields previously said he would like another term. Also making overtures is Matthew Miholic of Lake Bluff, Dist. 2.

Unlike past elections, Geary thinks the new board members elected this week might give him the one or two vote edge to give him the 13 supporters needed for the election.

For the job of chairman of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist., the six-year hold of Donald Strenger of Lake Forest, seems to be in jeopardy. Few board members like his veto of county land purchases, which number more than one-half dozen. He is the first chairman since the district was formed to wield such a pen. Looking for his job is Andrea Moore of Libertyville, Dist. 5, the open-space stronghold of Lake County.

The Numbing Experience

A large part of a patient's fear in the dental office is associated with the administering of the anesthetic, even though the actual discomfort involved is equal to a pin prick. The tradeoff is a good one when one considers that this pin prick almost totally eliminates the more painful experience of drilling a tooth without anesthetic. However, there are steps that your dentist can take to minimize any discomfort associated with administering the anesthetic. For one, he can apply a topical anesthetic to the injection site to numb it. He can also gently quiver your cheek to distract your attention. Last of all, you will experience less discomfort if the anesthetic is warmed to body temperature prior to the injection.

Contrary to what you may believe, by slowly administering the anesthetic it is less painful than a faster administration.

I'm Kurt Bohl, and I'd like to welcome you to my new column. As a native of this area, I offer you the same friendly atmosphere in my dental office as our community offers to all our families. Our patients' first visit includes a free dental exam. For complete dental services for members of your family, schedule an appointment. -Emergencies always accepted.

Rte. 53 differences

One of the unexplainable aspects of the controversy over plans to extend superhighway Rte. 53 into the heart of Lake County is the everwidening chasm between public opinion and the stand of public officials. It seems that the more officialdom clamors for the new highway, the more fuel is added to public opposition.

We are aware of only two municipalities where there is uniform opposition to the highway, Long Grove and Mundelein. In Grayslake, the northern terminus, there is vocal citizen opposition to Rte. 53 while the official position on the highway is neutrality.

Nowhere is there a greater difference between electors and elected officials than the Village of Hawthorn Woods. Under extreme citizen pressure, trustees repealed a resolution endorsing the controversial roadway. After three heated public meetings, there are scars, animosities and doubt remaining. Hawthorn Woods residents say the six-lane highway would create air pollution, noise and invite disruptive commercial development that will threaten their quality of life. The road would back up to 73 houses and pass within 800 feet of 100 others. It is difficult to see how village officials could be so out of touch with the citizens they are elected to represent.

Village officials already on record supporting the highway extension would do well to sound out public opinion, thereby avoiding the rancor existing in Hawthorn Woods. We also feel that it is high time that a high level inquiry be conducted into why a highway plan that appears to have mixed public support is being crammed down the throats of the electorate. Perhaps this is a job for Democratic leaders to challenge Republican leadership that seems so set on a public highway the people don't want or don't care about.

Deer dangers lurking

Danger lurks on open country roads after dark. A growing deer population is resulting in more highway kills and damage to automobiles. Displacement of habitats due to urbanization is believed to be the cause for most of the deer-car collisions. The beautiful creatures are no match for either bulldozers or cars.

Lindenhurst police maintain careful records of deer kills in traffic. The first deer death of 1988 was recorded recently. A total of 34 deer were killed by cars last year in Lindenhurst, which is bounded by considerable wooded acreage, much of which is now undergoing development.

Chief Gary Kupsak pointed out that it is legal to claim deer carcasses. Where deer herds forage in woods and swamps elsewhere in the country, police report similar deer-car incidents. We don't exactly live in deer country, but the animals flourish until their habitat is disturbed. Drivers beware.

Two party primer

The election Tuesday, Nov. 8, proved once again that Lake County still is Republican territory. Hard-rock Republicans might like this, but we happen to feel a stronger, more viable Democratic party would make for more responsive elected officials if not for better government.

To their credit, the Democrats fielded more credible candidates than usual, but their candidacies never got off the ground because party support is so weak. Two newcomers, Grant B. Farrell and Robert J. Long, might offer prospects for better days to come for the Democrats. Farrell, running against an entrenched and well financed Republican, took State Rep. Robert Churchill to task on open space and the extension of Rte. 53, two viable issues, but not in the district Churchill represents. That's inexperience. Long, running against incumbent State's Atty. Fred Foreman, tagged the popular Republican for lacking prosecutorial zeal, over-spending for contract assistants and being inattentive to administrative details, all reasonable questions to raise. Only Long started too late and he lacked fire power.

If the Democrats ever hope to offer voters a choice in Lake County, they'll have to stop the practice of coming out of the woodwork every two years, expecting voters to be interested and impressed with what they have to say. Republicans dominate Lake County because party practitioners work at their jobs 356 days a year. Government--and politics--is a year-around business. Republicans are winners because they have learned how to tend shop.

'Pro-life' questions

by JOHN MATIJEVICH
STATE REPRESENTATIVE

In this column, I have addressed the dangers of one-issue, emotional campaigns. Those types of campaigns can make the call for a constitutional convention highly explosive and divisive.

Let me explain why I believe that one-issue campaigns can be inconsistent, short-sighted, and incomplete. The Right-to-Life Political Action Committee has endorsed me. Its letter of endorsement said, "we must maintain the protection to the right to life for all human beings regardless of age or dependency." The national Right-to-Life-Committee didn't endorse Michael Dukakis because of his "freedom of choice" position on abortion.

Now, the inconsistency. It seems to me that too many who oppose abortion are silent when other "life issues" are proposed. When I had a bill to provide pre-natal and post-natal care, I found that many of the vocal right-to-life advocates in the legislature were the strongest opponents when it came to protecting the health and lives of mothers and children.

In 1985, nearly five babies died every hour in the United States. The infant mortality rate was 10.6 deaths per 100 live births. The rate is even higher in Illinois. More than half of these deaths could have been prevented by proper health services. That's a "life issue."

Day care services. Again, when we try to make day care more affordable for low and moderate income families, too often I find that the strongest opposition comes from the "other side of the aisle" from ultra-conservatives who believe that right-to-life is limited to anti-abortion only.

The environment. Isn't there a direct correlation to life and the air that we breathe, the water we drink, the food that we eat, and the chemicals that may abound? The increasing number of chemical explosions, the increase in cancer deaths caused by toxic chemicals, and the danger of many environmental hazards are issues that relate to life and the quality of life. Yet, on these issues I

When candidates visit, usually Vernon Township

by BILL SCHROEDER

Vernon Township far and away is the "most visited" sector by U.S. presidential candidates of Lake County. When Vice President George Bush appeared in the waning campaign days at Stevenson High School, Prairie View, he was following precedent established by a Democrat.

The tiny clapboard Vernon Town Hall on Old Rte. 22, Half Day, just east of the Stevenson campus, was in the national political highlight in 1952, and again in 1956 when Adlai Stevenson presumably cast a ballot for himself at Vernon's lone polling place at that time while cameras clicked and reporters recorded the event.

Had Stevenson been successful, his small farm on Old St. Mary's Rd. south of Rte. 60 would have been the Little White House. The farm was in Vernon Township although the Democratic leader maintained a Libertyville address.

Only other Lake County visit in modern times by a presidential candidate was a speech at Cook Memorial Park in Libertyville by Sen. Jack Kennedy in his successful 1960 quest for the presidency.

Two future U.S. presidents visited Lake County at campaign time long before anyone except perhaps themselves dreamed of their ascendancy to the White House, the then Congressman Richard M. Nixon at a Republican rally after World War II at Cedar Lake Park, Lake Villa, and Congressman Gerald Ford speaking on behalf of the re-election effort of the late Congressman Robert McClory at a dinner at Illinois Beach State Park, Zion.

Local history recorded that Abraham Lincoln as a rising politician spent the night during a visit to Waukegan in a house at County and Julian Sts. that came to be known as "The House Lincoln Slept In."

No sitting president has visited Lake County in modern times, probably for two reasons: 1. This locality is too lopsidedly Republican to make political sense for the GOP or the Democrats; 2. In non-election years there's a pretty hefty fee to cover travel costs for Air Force One and the Secret Service. In the early Reagan years the price tag was $10,000. It's probably a lot more today.

As a sitting president, William Howard Taft officiated at the dedication of Great Lakes Naval Training Center in 1911. President Franklin D. Roosevelt made a secret visit to Great Lakes on Sept. 19, 1942, on an inspection tour of military bases. FDR traveled by train on a non-political swing through the midwest.

NOT MUCH TV--Son Bill and daughter-in-law Lisa brought back an outpouring of impressions plus a flock of memories after a short visit to France, Germany and Austria. Europeans don't spend a lot of time watching the few television channels. The father of a friend they visited wasn't interested enough to know how to turn on the set in his home. They much prefer talking politics and discussing current events in pubs and street cafes. President Reagan is revered in Germany, according to the travelers.

After driving on the autobahns, Bill forgot about American speed limits in a hurry. Motorists routinely cruise at more than 100mph on excellent highways in open country. Europe is the place for car buffs. A tip to other tourists. Don't be afraid of arranging your own accommodations. Bill and Lisa said hotels in bigger cities have a habit of "misplacing" reservations, offering expensive upgrades when you arrive.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY--Let the leaves blow and the winds howl. We're ready for winter--and spring. Three dozen spring bulbs have been planted, something we've wanted to do for a long time. Winter will be easier to take this year knowing that early spring flowers will follow the melting snow.

Politically speaking....

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Flexing his Republican muscles again is Robert Neal, County Board member from Dist. 3, supervisor of Newport Twp. and chairman of the Lake County Republican Central Committee. The GOP committee, which is really Neal, black-listed F.T. "Mike" Graham of Libertyville Twp. and his Curb Over Development political action committee. The committee endorsed Neal's Democratic opponents in the Nov. 8 election. Black listing means he is not invited to socialize with the GOP.

Neal

Graham

Talking about Robert Neal, he and a panel of County Board members were named last month to spend three weeks hearing an application by Waste Management Inc. for a 160-acre landfill at Rte. 83 and Peterson Rd. near Grayslake. The committee said "no." So did the County Board.

The site committee met daily for three weeks to hear arguments for and against the new landfill. Helen Belmont Amendola missed a few meetings to spend time in the hospital. Some days it was difficult to assemble a quorum.

Neal missed every one of them—to politic or do whatever.

Asked why he never attended a meeting, Neal said, "Oh, I resigned from that committee by letter." Committee members said they never received any mailing from Neal. Even if this happened, no one recalls voting to accept or reject it.

How does C. Richard Anderson, County Board member from Dist. 6 feel about being called a "rascal" by Robert Neal?

"It's a compliment," he says. "It shows someone is paying attention to what we out here in the county are saying and doing."

"I've been a Republican precinct committeeman for 23-1/2 years," the North Barrington resident said. "That's a lot longer than someone named Neal, who must be a committeeman in order to hold the party job he does."

Anderson and others note Neal ran scared this election, real scared. He had a last-minute campaign blitz to save his political hide and the jobs that go with it.

Pro-life

again find that too many who exhort loudly that they are "pro-life" oppose our attempts to protect the environment against pollution. These are "life" issues.

When it comes to comprehensive health care, which can be a life-and-death matter for many, and particularly our elderly, I again find too many who are "pro-life" silent or opposed to bills to guarantee quality health care. Medicare has become more costly for many seniors. Long-term health care costs are sky-rocketing. These are "life" issues.

Social security. Where would we be without it? Yet, there are those who would reduce the federal deficit by cutting social security. On a federal level, many of the conservatives who are "pro-life" have opposed cost-of-living adjustments for social security recipients. Again, for many, this is a "life" issue.

High public utility bills. When seniors and the poor have to choose between heating and eating, that's a "life" issue. Again, whenever I have handled bills to help utility ratepayers, some of the strongest opposition comes from those who claim they are "pro-life."

The point I'd like to make is that there must be a consistency in the protection of life. Life does not stop at birth. Life, and the quality of life, must be protected.

Letters To The Editor

Sick of development

Editor:

What's the matter with all the local new media? Why are they all determined to report negative things about F.T. "Mike" Graham? Could it be because Graham is one of the few elected officials who really represent the public, who really does what we want him to do—fight to preserve some land, slow down runaway development, and speak up for us regarding pollution, zoning matters, etc.?

People all over Lake County are clamoring to hear Graham speak. He is truly a leader FOR the people, and the sad part is, if he were not here, there would be very few officials who could take his place and be able to stand up under the pressure of the development industry.

The Curb Over-Development political action committee, of which he is the chairman, is not HIS political action committee—it is the PAC of a group of nonpartisan citizens, myself included, who needed a leader who is well-known and not afraid of the local powers that be. Being the leader of this PAC only adds additional workload to Graham's already busy schedule. He is a dynamic man, and he is on the right track as far as the residents of Lake County are concerned, whether they live in Wadsworth, Antioch, Barrington, Lake Forest, Vernon Hills, Gurnee or Grayslake.

To the average Lake County resident it just doesn't make sense. Dick Welton, mayor of Gurnee, fills in a wetland and his fellow mayors defend him, and the news media devotes editorials singing his praises. While Mike Graham, whose efforts have saved literally thousands of acres of land, including irreplaceable floodplains and wetlands, is criticized almost on a daily basis in the press and on the radio.

We are sick to death of the over-development, shopping centers on every corner, traffic jams wherever we go, asphalt covering everything in sight, trees being chainsawed, etc., while our mayors tell us they are simply increasing the tax base. WE WANT SOME OPEN LAND!

Asks senior support

Editor:

In recent months, I have found myself discussing the school tax increase numerous times. In all these discussions I have been told our senior citizens have been voting it down.

I'm always surprised by this and ask why. I'm told our senior citizens live on a fixed income and cannot afford a tax increase. Secondly, I am told they have been paying school taxes for years, and why should they continue to pay when they no longer use the school system.

To the first answer, I say that—in a sense—we all are living on a fixed income. For those of us who work, we must live within the means of our salaries. When our taxes increase, we cannot ask our employers for a raise to cover the cost.

Why should senior citizens pay higher school taxes when they no longer use the school system? Why should I, at age 31, pay social security taxes when many people feel the system will be grossly overburdened by the time I can benefit from it?

The answer to both questions is the same. We should pay because we are all members of our community.

Our right to vote makes us all equal partners. We equally share both the benefits and the burdens of our community. This is the American way of life. Since the beginning of American history our ancestors have fought and worked hard to preserve this lifestyle.

If we refuse to support this lifestyle at the community level today, what will our future be? In ten years, some of the children in our schools today will be adults. These young adults will be starting to form our future.

I feel we owe it to ourselves and these children to prepare them as best we can. Even though as a parent I sometimes wonder if my children will ever grown up, I realize they will. They will have a voice in forming policies that will govern my future.

Our schools are not perfect, and there is room for improvement. Even with their imperfections, the schools are part of our community. They belong to all of us and are in need of our help. I feel they deserve our help—community pride demands it.

Questions for atheist

Editor:

There have many articles about Robert Sherman who heads atheists' group in Illinois. He has objected to everything that even smacks of reference to God. That is his prerogative.

My question to him: What happens when the time comes (and it will someday) when you are ill and looking for comfort and have no place to turn? Where do you find your comfort? You're near death and aware of it. What is your thinking?

It must be a sad thing for him to go through life without a belief in something greater than he thinks he is. I feel sorry for his children, no one to turn to.

Siblik turns fanaticism into big business

It's Sunday, it's fall and that can mean only one thing for Lindenhurst resident Al Siblik.

Early in the morning, it is time to don that jersey with a white No. 48 on it. Call the neighbors. Get out the pretzels and remove the covers from the big-screen tv.

Nothing new, you say? All Bear fans get ready to watch their favorites in their own special way.

But simply drive by Siblik's Valley Dr. home and one can tell Sundays are taken seriously here. There are 35 squares on the garage door and all National Football League teams are represented by helmets. The extras, of course, are taken up with the Bears.

After a friendly greeting at the door, a quick turn to the left and one is in the "Bear Den". There are posters galore on the walls. The carpet is astroturf. Just ask, and Siblik will gladly show you the No. 1 Bears fan plaque.

"Everytime we go to a game, we come home with something," Siblik said of the collection.

But Siblik has taken Bear fanaticism and turned it into big business.

He is marketing a neat plywood replica of NFL helmets. Given the blessing of NFL Properties, the helmets have been big hits with the help of Gurnee firms FTR Plastics and KHM Plastics.

"We were told we would have to sell $100,000 in helmets to make it. The Bears are an automatic sell, but Cleveland is the second highest seller," Siblik said.

An Antioch Sequoia helmet look-alike is mounted on the wall in the Bears den. Some 250 Sequoia helmets were ordered for Homecoming. Siblik said more high schools and college's logos could be made.

Not only have the helmets been hot products at such Lake County outlets as Welton's County Market in Gurnee and JC Penny stores, but they have caught the eye of the Bears organization as well.

"Bill Archer, the band director, has asked for 14 helmets for the music stands," Siblik said.

A collection of the Bears helmets will be sent to Coach Mike Ditka's Chicago restaurant.

Siblik's Bears den, made possible when another room in the home ran out of space for the Bears products at Christmas time, did require much effort in its construction.

"When I went to the Ozite carpet store in Libertyville and told the girl behind the counter what I wanted, she said I was crazy," he said.

Then there were more problems.

"We found out we could not get the wide-screen tv through the door. I said we would cut the walls out if we had to," Siblik, who has met many Bears, said.

But that dilemma was overcome and although the Bears lost this particular Sunday 30-7 to New England, this did not deter Siblik's devotion to his favorite team.

YMCA names new director

Larry J. Johnson has been announced as the new program director for the YMCA's South Geneseo St. facility.

Johnson received a scholarship to Northern Ill. Univ. for wrestling and went on to achieve the Illinois College title, conference championship and NCAA all-american title. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education, and taught at North Chicago Community High School. He was a wrestling and football coach at the high school before joining the YMCA.

Showing Bears loyalty

Lindenhurst resident Al Siblik is not your ordinary Bears fan. He has a "Bears Den" collection of Bears souvenirs in his home and has turned an invention of a Bears-like helmet made of plywood into a side business.

Metra gets into the spirit

Metra will get into the holiday spirit by extending its discounted "Family Fare" plan to include the day after Thanksgiving and two full weeks during the Christmas season.

To accommodate families traveling downtown for holiday outings, shopping or the annual Christmas parade, Metra's "Family Fares" will be in effect Friday, Nov. 25 and every day from Saturday, Dec. 17 through Monday, Jan. 2.

Trains will run on a normal weekday schedule Nov. 25, with extra coaches added during the mid-morning and afternoon to handle traditionally large crowds of shoppers.

Under the "Family Fare" plan, youths age 12 through 17 ride for half price, and up to three children under 12 can ride free when accompanied by a fare-paying adult.

Ticket agents will remain on duty at several Metra stations throughout the holidays. Riders at these stations can buy tickets before boarding and avoid an on-board surcharge. At stations with no agent on duty, the 50-cent penalty (per ticket) is not imposed.

Wauconda couple opens maid service

"We decided to look into McMaids franchise service when we had difficulty finding a cleaning service for ourselves," says Phyllis Kelly who with husband, Michael, has opened a McMaids franchise with offices in the Professional Building at 118 S. Main St., Wauconda.

Newly moved from downtown Chicago, the Kellys like to think that by opening their business in Wauconda, they are getting back to their roots. Originally from a farm in Kenosha, Wis., Phyllis taught French and English for several years at Tremper High School in Kenosha. And, although Michael grew up in Chicago's Western suburbs, his family vacationed often in their cottage in Antioch on Loon Lake.

"Although I was not working on a job, when we were looking for someone to help with the cleaning tasks," says Phyllis, "I was busy with charitable and other responsibilities which took me out of the home often."

The Kellys see McMaids' services as beneficial to the people who hire home cleaners as well as to the people who are hired. Their service area includes Crystal Lake, Libertyville, Vernon Hills, Green Oak, McHenry, Algonquin, Mundelein and Wauconda. "McMaids employees receive fair wages with increased pay for each team supervisor," says Michael, "and they are covered under unemployment compensation."

Michael and Phyllis both have experience in the human resources field and their concern for the protection of employees comes naturally. Phyllis has worked in human resources management for public accounting firms and private industry, and Michael owns a search firm specializing in brokerage, accounting and banking positions.

The Kellys equally share the McMaids franchise responsibilities with Michael already taking over the marketing aspects, while Phyllis takes care of hiring personnel and training. In addition to part-time and full-time employees, they also have flexible schedules for mothers with school-age children.

"Training for employees is very important because we use McMaids' special cleaning system," says Phyllis. "I've had my share responsibilities either personally doing the duties or supervising the work of those doing it for me, however, I was really surprised about how much I learned during our classes at McMaids' College of Cleaning Knowledge."

All prospective franchisees attend McMaids' two week training course where they learn how to run a franchise operation. It includes training manual instruction and review, a course in simple repair of cleaning of household equipment, estimating and bookkeeping. Before "graduation" everyone goes out with McMaids service crews and cleans houses.

McMaids uses four-person cleaning teams, which tackle five to six houses a day. "McMaids' cleaning system is very logical, utilizing time and energy," says Michael. "they use proven techniques and products that get the job done economically and efficiently."

"The operation is very structured. McMaids has uniforms, offices, rules, regulations, benefits and a very efficient cleaning system. Everything is very professional," says Michael.

"Professional housekeeping is becoming a necessity when you have two income households," says Phyllis. "After working all day, no one wants to be stuck with housework."

"People will pay for a service if you do the job right," says Michael.

Grayslake grew with early 'Coke'

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Some people save stamps. Others like old coins. Lots of people save everything, then, once a year have a rummage sale.

Not Sam Raysby of Hainesville. He likes things that are old, those having to do with the history of Lake County.

He also has newer, old things like copies of a newspaper headlining the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, another with picture and headline about the first man on the moon and autographed photos of Bob Hope, Phyllis Diller and Sam Harris of Star Search fame.

Then there is a pair of shoes worn by the world's tallest man, Don Kohler of Skokie. The 8-foot, 2-inch giant died at the age of 55 in 1979 on his niece's horse ranch at Monaville and Cedar Lake Rds. in Lake Villa Twp. Raysby has his size 22 black, lace shoes.

Sometimes the closet where Raysby stores all of this gets so full his wife, Jan, wants to have a rummage sale of her own.

He might let her get rid of some things, but not his Coca-Cola collection. It consists of such things as a turn-of-the-century serving tray with a full set of flare serving glasses and Coca-Cola imprint, posters, pictures, a Tony Bennett recording of "Cold, Cold Heart" with the Coca-Cola label, several oldtime six-ounce bottles, the newer 10-ounce ones and lots more.

Not only does he read, sleep and dream about Coca-Cola, he drinks it, too. His favorite is Classic.

Raysby knows the history of Coca-Cola almost by heart. The story of one of the world's most popular soft drinks began in Atlanta, Ga. on May 8, 1886.

Dr. John Styth Pemberton, a pharmacist, was mixing some syrups. Accidentally or otherwise, he happened upon a mixture that struck his fancy. He took it down the street to Jacob's Pharmacy where it was blended with carbonated water. Sales that year at five cents a glass was an average 13 drinks per day.

Sales and bottling operations grew

Ingleside woman will go to Mexico with animals

Marcy Kengott of Ingleside is a member of the International Friendship Club which is headquartered in Puerto Vallarta, Mex.

The club has raised money for everything from installing water coolers in hospitals to funding surgical care for children suffering with cleft palates, to placing garbage cans on the Mexican waterfront and even to caring for an entire family afflicted with cancer.

Marcy has collected dozens of stuffed animals from club members, friends and relatives and she intends to travel to Mexico to distribute them among children hospitalized with cleft palates.

Previously, the club raised $1,000 and donated it for cleft palate surgeries. Other fundraisers have made possible donations to a juvenile detention home and also to a school for the retarded.

According to Marcy, one of the prime fundraising events are in-house tours which include some of the most architecturally relevant cliff-side mansions found in Puerto Vallarta.

One woman play part of Festival

"Planting in the Dust", a critically-acclaimed one woman/one act play will be the highlight event of this year's Harvest Festival at Deerfield's Edward L. Ryerson Conservation Area on Sunday, Nov. 13.

Festivities begin at noon and include games, contests, hayrides, and demonstrations. At 3:30 p.m. the festival will conclude with the half-hour drama starring Marrita Brake.

In the play, Brake portrays Annie, a young farm woman who has returned to the land her great grandparents homesteaded. Brake's presentation of Annie's struggles with the emotionally charged issues facing farmers today has been described as "evocative, informative, and entertaining—superbly performed."

The play, written by Nancy Paddock and produced by the Land Stewardship Project of Stillwater, Minn., has been hailed as one of the finest presentations on land ethics available today. It is sponsored here by the Friends of Ryerson Woods.

The fee for the Harvest Festival, including admission to the play, is $2 for Lake County residents, $3 for non-residents, and $1 for members of Friends of Ryerson Woods. Call (312)948-7750 for more information.

Russ wins Hazen

Veteran Kirk Player, Kathy Russ, formerly of Mundelein, has been awarded the community theatre group's highest honor, their "HAZEN" Award as Most Valuable Player.

"HAZEN" Award winners are selected by the Players themselves and recognizes backstage and administrative contributions and an enthusiastic supportive attitude as well as on-stage excellence.

Russ, a seven year veteran, who recently moved to the Pittsburgh area, made the trip back even more worthwhile by also winning the "Leslie" Award as Best Actress in a Major Role.

The presentation of the "HAZEN" Award climaxed the Kirk Player's 17th Annual Awards Banquet which was held at the Lambs Country Inn in Libertyville. Another highlight was the presentation of "Leslie" Awards for outstanding performances in the groups Subscription Series productions. "O'D" Awards were also presented for outstanding work in their Summer Workshop program.

Russ won her Best Actress "Leslie" for her delightful portrayal of the ambitious radio personality in "Breakfast With Les and Bess". Although she had won an "O'D" Award for Best Actress in a Summer Workshop scene and a "Leslie" for Best Supporting Actress, this was her first Best Actress "Leslie".

If Russ was the star of this year's banquet Mundelein's Hill Carter was her co-star. A veteran of 17 years, the group's technical director, and most honored male player, Hill won "Leslies" for Best Actor in a Major Role and Best Supporting Actor.

His Best Actor "Leslie" was for his performance as the athletic half of the radio team in "Breakfast With Les and Bess". His Best Supporting Actor "Leslie" was for his work as the determined police inspector in "Monique". These were the popular Carter's 10th and 11th "Leslies".

Can I take my gun, dog bicycle, scuba tank or windsurfer with me when I fly?

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTHSTAR TRAVEL, INC.

Just because you have chosen to fly on your vacation doesn't mean you have to limit what you can take with you. There are actually very few items you can't take on a plane, if you plan ahead.

Let's start with the basics. You're allowed three pieces of luggage, too, at no additional charge. Each bag is limited to 70 lbs. Size restrictions in linear inches (length, plus width, plus height). For Bag One it is 62 inches, Bag Two maximum is 55 inches, and Bag Three is 45 inches. If Bag Two is less than 45 linear inches, both Bag Two and Bag Three may be carried on board the cabin with you, if you like. (You may be limited to one "carry-on" on certain flights.)

O.K. for the necessities. How about the toys?

You may take, at no additional charge, a set of skis, boots and poles. Ski bags are usually provided free. One of your allowed bags may also be replaced with bowling, fishing, golfing or shooting equipment.

Firearms are accepted as checked baggage only. They must be in a hard-sided, lockable case. Boxes are available for sale from the airlines if yours is not acceptable. Five lbs. of ammunition may be checked, but only 20 lbs. are allowed per aircraft. Unless you must have that special load, buy your ammo at your destination. If you are traveling with firearms, get to the airport early as they will be inspected to see they are unloaded.

So how about the more unusual items? Bicycles must be crated, boxed or bagged and will cost you about $30. Bike boxes are available from most airlines. Scuba equipment can be checked for another $30 and must be suitably packed with the tank empty. Windsurfers will cost you about $75.

While there isn't much you don't take on your airplane journey, I would still investigate the cost of renting your favorite sports toy at your resort. It may be worth the few bucks rather than lugging your scuba tank with you or risking damage to your favorite pair of skis.

Players rehearse 'Forum'

Waukegan Community Players will present for its first presentation of the 1988-89 season, the musical "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum".

Of course, nobody ever goes to the Forum but the show has everything that's been making farces raucously comic for two thousand years, mistaken identities, masquerades, lecherous old duffers chasing pretty girls and young lovers panting to get married.

This merry mixture of burlesque, vaudeville, old-fashioned musical comedy when the comedians were the stars, and the raucous humor that's been making people bust out in guffaws since the ancient Romans hits the Melba Wixom stage.

Coke

immensely in the turn-of-the century years. Somewhere between 1910 and 1920 Doc Hildebrand of Grayslake became fascinated by the drink. He worked out an arrangement to bottle Coca-Cola in a converted garage on George Street, a block-long street between Lake St. and Grays Lake near today's Parkway Foods.

After a bit of trial and error, it is believed bottling began in earnest in 1916. That was about the time a new, contoured bottle design was introduced. Until this time contents the straight-sided bottles were contained with an iron stopper having a rubber washer.

As approved by a convention of Coca-Cola bottlers that year, the design had the name of the local bottler designed into the bottom. Few, if any, of these bottles made by the Root Glass Co. of Terre Haute, Ind., still exist.

Some of the caps and labels do. The caps were attached by a hand press that crimped the edges. Labels were applied by hand.

In addition to Coca-Cola, two other flavors were bottled at the Hildebrand plant. They were Ladroc Cherry Dew and Ladroc Lime Beverage, both with labels listing them as Coca-Cola products. Raysby has tamished caps from all three.

Warhawks lead NSC selections

North Chicago's varsity football team realized the benefits of its first winning season in 20 years as five Warhawks were selected to the all-North Suburban Conference team.

While no area NSC team contended for the title or made the playoffs, the Warhawks came closest to both goals, finishing 5-4.

Two backfield players made the team as quarterback Jeff Patterson and running back Lamont Lindsey were named. Tailback-linebacker Jackie Thompson and tight end-linebacker Darren Hilson were selected. Marvin Coleman, a tight end and defensive end, rounded out the North Chicago contingent.

Warren, who was 4-5 and Antioch, who finished at 3-6, both had three players named.

Tight end-linebacker Don Bendery, wide receiver-defensive back Keith Friedman and guard-noseguard Brian Mull were Blue Devils named.

Jason Bellucci, a defensive tackle and linebacker Brian Buszia were joined by running back-defensive back-kicker Scott Gooch from Antioch.

Fullback-linebacker John Sidari, tight end Jeff Fuller and linebacker-fullback Mark Mathews were Mundelein's, 3-6, representatives.

Linebacker Chris Holder and tight end Chad Schmitt were Stevenson picks.

All area representatives on the all-NSC squad are seniors.

League champ Zion-Benton had nine players chosen.

As teammates watch, Round Lake's Cyndie Donner demonstrates her technique in going for a spike. Watching are Panthers Evelyn Van Meter, Regina Meeks and Peggy Amedio. Rally falls short for CLC spikers

Sometimes, a rally can be an inspirational occurrence, leading a team on to victory.

But at other times, it can turn sour - especially if there is little energy left after reaching that plateau. That's what happened to the College of Lake County volleyball team Friday. The Lancers were eliminated in five games by Elgin.

The Lancers were coming off a Skyway Conference championship heading into the first round match against Elgin. And matters started out strong for the home team, who won the first game 15-11. Elgin then used superior strength at the net to win the next two games, 15-8, 15-7. CLC then forced a deciding fifth game, winning the fourth contest 15-8. The hosts had little left for the finale, as Elgin cruised 15-4.

Elgin, by winning the match, qualified for the regional tournament this week at Rock Valley. McHenry, which beat both Harper in the first round and later defeated Elgin in the championship in three games, also qualified for regionals.

CLC led from the start in the first game against Elgin, enjoying margins of 4-1 and 11-5. But ECC rallied, closing the gap to 13-11. After a timeout to regroup, the Lancers recovered and Tracey Niewiedzial served the winning two points.

The home team found it had its backs to the wall, though, after losing the next two games to ECC's superior front line play.

In game four, the Lancers ended a see-saw battle with an 8-7 lead on a spike by Kerry Wilson.

Patriots realize dreams, earn Sweet 16 berth

By STEVE PETERSON

Forget the pre-season predictions. Forget, for now, the winning streak. Forget the mid-season rankings.

While all of the above were important factors in Stevenson volleyball team's 1988 season, those will not be the moments the Patriots will remember 10 years from now.

Instead, it will be a certain night up the road in Mundelein where the Pats not only dismantled Round Lake in two quick games, 15-5, 15-3, but in the process earned their own place in the rich Stevenson volleyball history books.

"These kids have been dreaming about this for three years. The kids were freshmen when we went this far last time. Ever since that time they wanted to get here. They've been dreaming about this and it's time to live down the reputation of those girls," Stevenson Coach Bob Schenk said.

Schenk was recalling the last Patriot team to advance this far - to the Sweet Sixteen. Now the '88 squad, led by hitters Amy Ostrem, Courtney DeBolt, Amy Monroe and Kim Johnson knew it was their turn to celebrate.

Schenk called the 35-2 squad "the best team I've ever had. It's going to take an awful lot of doing in the future to beat that," he said.

"The first five points of that game was three years in the works. Just the mins - we're here, we're here, we're here. They weren't ready because they were too tight. Then it just worked out. Give them a chance," Schenk said.

Ostrem was one of the big factors in the win as the senior had eight kills. "Everybody else had kills," Schenk said.

In the second game, Ostrem had five points. Monroe had two kills, Kim Johnson three, DeBolt two. In serving, DeBolt, a freshman, had 10 points with 13 of 13 and three aces. Johnson had eight points and two aces.

The hitters were helped in their attacks by a perfect setting night by Karen Butler. The senior was 39-for-39.

All throughout the season, Schenk has been stressing the ability of his talented team to play together and it reached a climax against the Panthers.

"When we play together, we kind of play flawlessly. It was out night tonight," Schenk said.

The Patriots were facing no slouches in Round Lake.

Panthers pace NWSC selections

Round Lake may have missed the post-season football playoffs by a slim two points, but the Panthers can take some consolation in that they cleaned up when it came to the all-Northwest Suburban Conference selections.

Six Panther players made the coveted team and one was named to the honorable mention list.

"We were very happy. It was a great group of kids," Round Lake Coach Mike Dunn, whose team finished at 6-3, said.

Running back Aaron Meeke led the seniors on the all league team. Meeke was one of the top rushers over the last two years for Round Lake and finished with 779 yards in 74 carries and 10 touchdowns. The better than 10.5 yards a carry average could not have been possible without the support of a strong offensive line. And the NWSC recognized that by placing offensive guard Thad Edwards and tackle Larry West on the team. Both Edwards and West also played defensive tackle for the Panthers.

Wauconda, which finished with an historic 5-4 record had four representatives. Two linemen were chosen - guard/linebacker John Rude, guard Scott Eckmann as well as linebacker Alex Jeschke and flanker Marc Niemo. All are seniors. Eric Becker and Ken Klesch were picked honorable mention.

Lake Zurich had five players on the team: junior on the squad, fullback-defensive guard Joe Leineberg. Senior lineman Phil Rathke, quarterback Scott Krezeminski and lineman Rob Squier made the team. Rick Rybarczyk was on the honorable mention squad.

Grant suffered through a 3-6 campaign but senior Troy Petersen was a force on defense, harassing quarterbacks from his defensive end slot. Defensive back - wide receiver Joe Wach also made the team. Jamie Maiworm also made the squad.

Tony Van Sickle was named honorable mention.

Grayslake was known for its passing attack and both quarterback Timm West and his favorite receiver, Mark Paszek, made the team. On defense, Jeff Miller, a linebacker, was selected.

Running back John Bouma was named honorable mention.

Johnsburg was winless, but halfback Jim Rorig was named to the all league team and Dennis Linn was named to the honorable mention list.

Plenty of '88 positives for playoff qualifier Carmel

There he was, standing on the 40-yard line at McCullough Stadium.

A few feet away, Zion-Benton players were happily lifting their helmets to the sky, celebrating their 31-10 playoff win over Carmel.

Yet instead of dwelling on the negatives of a Zion second half performance which turned a narrow four-point lead to the 21-point margin of victory.

"We have a lot to be proud of," Carmel Coach Mike Fitzgibbons said.

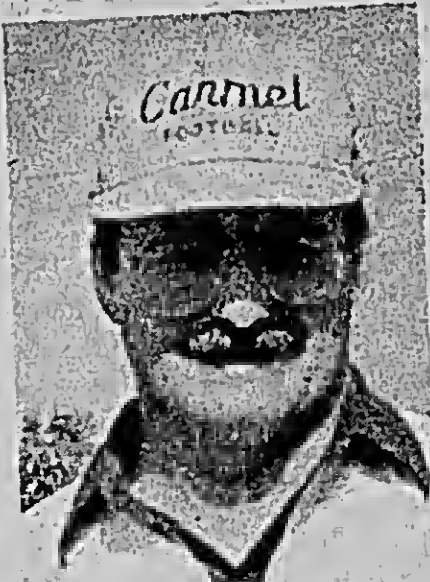

Two seniors set Carmel school records in the school's first playoff game ever. Quarterback Thad Sutter passed for 131 yards, setting a new mark by topping the 1,100 yard level. Running back Matt Simmons, who has been the workhorse of the CHS offense all year, topped the 1,275 yard mark for the season with 175 yards this cold Wednesday night.

"We were the ball control team and they were a big play team and it's hard for a ball control team to come back," Fitzgibbons said.

Most of the big plays against the Corsairs were made by the Gary Scott to Tim Borop connection. For it was the tight end who scored the first touchdown on a four-yard run which negated Carmel's early 3-0 lead. Then in the fourth quarter, the senior caught a 14 yard pass to set up a field goal for a 17-10 lead. He then ended the game for good by snaring a Sutter pass and romping 55 yards for the final score with 5:51 left.

The mood was a festive one in Mundelein as the Corsairs, 6-3, prepared to battle the undefeated North

Mike Fitzgibbons

Suburban Conference champs. An overflow crowd lined the sidelines and many Carmel fans came complete with faces painted brown and white.

Zion-Benton had a well publicized defense, giving up just 33 points in nine games. But Carmel shocked the favored Zee-Bees. A 30-yard sideline bomb from Sutter, who completed eight of 11 passes in the first half, to Don Anderson, who had half of those receptions for 92 yards, was good for 30 yards.

Simmons, on a third and five play, spun from a Zion defender, headed to the middle and gained 18 yards.

An incompletion forced the home team to go for three, but Alden Zilmich nailed it home from 23 yards out for a 3-0 lead.

Scott teased the Carmel defense by opening up with a bomb which fell incomplete. Zion then went to its ground attack and marched 63 yards in 14 plays, using up half of the first quarter. Borop scored his first touchdown of the game as time expired in the period.

Carmel went for two fake punts in the game and the first one backfired. An incomplete pass gave Zion the ball at their 44. Two plays later, Scott lofted a pass over the middle to George Liebert for a 54-yard strike with 7:31 left. The extra point made it 14-3 and it appeared the Corsairs were in for a long night.

But Carmel answered two drives later. This time, a fake punt worked as running back Steve Brock took the snap from center and rambed 18 yards to the ZB 39.

Crowning jewel

Placement, style and size need to be considered when choosing and hanging a chandelier. Consider a design to harmonize with decor; wrought iron with Early American, wood finish with country, and crystal with French provincial. Placing a chandelier in a window, where it can be viewed from the outside or in front of a mirror as above, expands the effect the fixture can produce. Dimmers can be installed to control the mood and atmosphere of the room.

Plants and Shrubs also need winterizing time is here to batten down the windows and make sure all caulking is in cracks and crevices. Weather stripping should be checked to see if it is still functional to keep those cold winter winds outside.

It is also necessary to consider the pruning. Many plants perish during winter. With today's nursery and center prices rising, preventive maintenance can help avoid the cost and of landscape restoration.

There are only a few tasks that should be done and these generally require little materials needed to insulate and protect valuable plant material include a pair of shears, tree shears, mulch, tree wrap and available water.

Check all deciduous trees for dead limbs and branches. These weak limbs can snap in a winter windstorm. This not only causes damage to the tree, but very possibly to home or office building and even to an innocent passer by.

Remove all deadwood down to live tissue. Another thing to look for is crossed branches that have been rubbing against each other. These could be weak at that point and snap in a quick wind. Remove the branch that has been rubbed and damaged the most or remove the one that will not mar the natural symmetry of the branching structure.

Shrubs should be checked for deadwood as well. Remove all dead and diseased wood from the plant. Then trim the shrubs, preserving their natural character.

Sweep those shrubs

Special winter care needs to be given to evergreens. This past Sunday's snow is a prime example. Wet snow, like Sunday's, left to sit on large boughs can be heavy enough to break them. Nothing more than a broom is needed to prevent major breakage.

Grate Heater

Now you don't. After, no other fireplace heater offers the same combination of safety and efficiency. A grate heater can be used with any type of wood. It has a retaining natural fire. It is available to fit any fireplace. It is safe and efficient for your home.

Inexpensive fix-up

Revive old kitchen

Look around the kitchen. Is it showing signs of age?

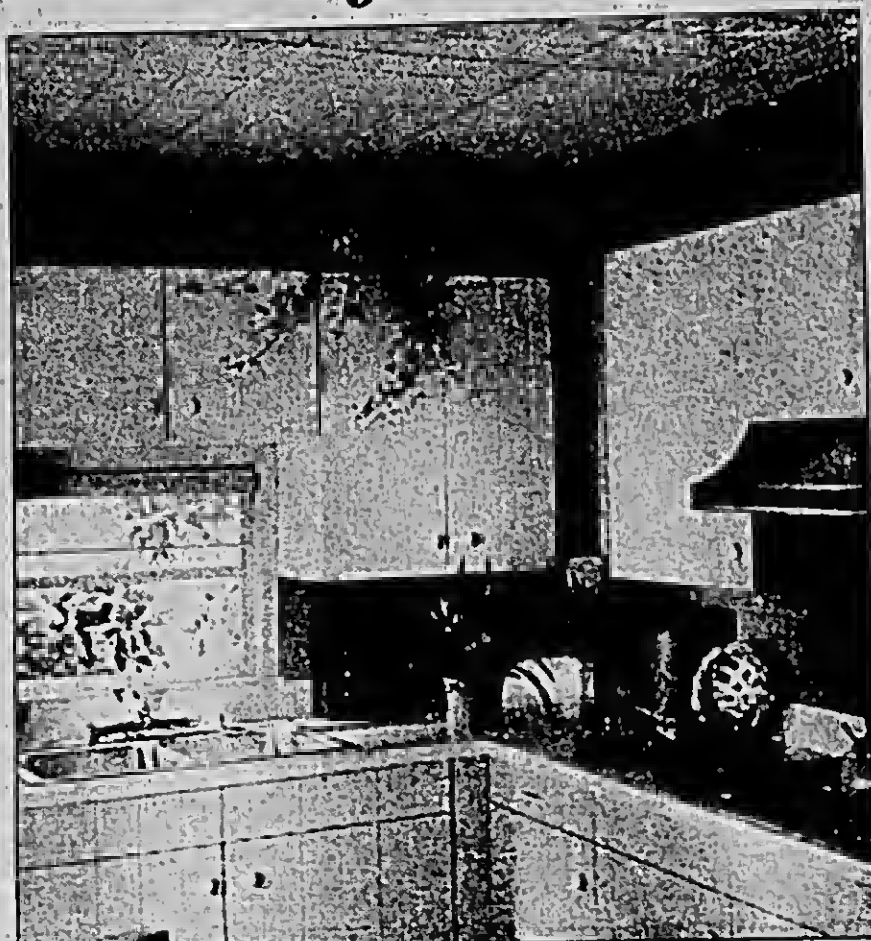

Maybe you're satisfied with its size and layout, but not its looks. Functionally, it may be fine—but aesthetically it's over the hill.

If that's the case, there are remedies that won't cost nearly what a full-scale remodeling would. With paint and do-it-yourselfer products, you can create a fresh, new-look kitchen for the upcoming holidays and avoid major expense.

Here's how to pull off a facelift. First, paint old, dark wood cabinets a light clay color and replace heavier brass hardware with white porcelain knobs. Next, paint the walls and range hood a soft complimentary color.

Pick an inexpensive sheet floor, maybe in a red brick pattern. Try to make sure flooring comes in 12-foot width so there will be less seams to contend with.

To finish off the project, install an acoustical suspended ceiling. Try two-by-four acoustical panels that are scored. It will give the appearance of smaller individual tiles.

Kitchen perk-up

Painting walls and cabinets and installing new sheet flooring and an acoustical ceiling perked up this kitchen at a fraction of the cost of a full-scale remodeling. This can be done inexpensively with the owner doing most of the work.

An acoustical suspended ceiling is a good choice because unlike plaster or drywall, it's uniquely suited to kitchen use. Besides absorbing noise, it's washable and fire retardant, and recessed lighting fixtures can be attached to the metal supporting grid.

This ceiling is easier to install than one might think. First, hang wires from the old ceiling. Then attach lightweight aluminum supports to the wires to form the grid. Finally, rest the two-by-four panels in the grid.

If ever it is necessary to get to the overhead space, merely lift the panels out.

Sit back and enjoy a new, inexpensive kitchen for the upcoming holidays.

Fix porches, decks now, avoid ravages of winter

Before winter sets in, take advantage of the nice fall weather to do some quick fixes of outdoor living space. A little investment will reinforce a deck, porch or patio against the ravages of winter. Plus it's a head into the year as soon as spring comes without having to take the hammer and nails there are tips to help you do the job:

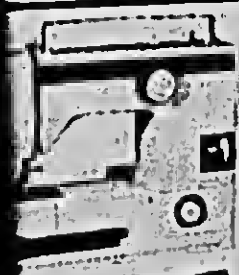

Check all components of deck or porch for loose boards, steps and boards and rotting or damaged wood. Then determine what needs to be removed and replaced with new wood.

Consider adding a few decorative touches to spruce up your porch or deck design. New systems of "wood specialties", like turned spindles and lattice, can add interest to your outdoor living space. Building materials dealers carry a wide array of pressure-treated wood specialties. Different manufacturers offer kits with a system of components that easily fit together, to both speed and ease construction of an outdoor project and spruce up your designs. Specialties include lattice panels and lattice frames; different types of turned spindles with handrails notched to fit over the spindles; deck posts, stair steps and stringers; several types of fence boards from plain to fancy, and more.

In shopping for different types of outside wood, many homeowners have discovered that pressure-treated wood can cost up to 30 percent less than the not-as-durable redwood and cedar.

Wintry weather concerns transportation dept.

What will the wintry weather be? That's a concept of considerable concern to the Illinois Dept. of Transportation. Particularly after the severe summer of droughty days, followed by rains.

Of course, the department considers the woolliness of the caterpillars, the thickness of the bear's fat, the depth of the perch and other traditional trends. Briefly—very briefly.

The department then goes to a consulting meteorologist in order to get advance warning of adverse weather conditions.

That information is indispensable when wind-whipped weather wraps its winter wreath around the area, icing intersections and snarling streets with snow.

Carmel to study curriculum

Working with an outside curriculum consultant, Carmel High School in Mundelein is undertaking an extensive examination of its curriculum. This examination will take place over two school years, beginning with the 1988-89 school year.

Lorraine Ozar, Ph.D., a curriculum specialist with the Archdiocese of Chicago, is acting as the facilitator for this project. It is designed to refine the present curriculum based upon the best current educational thinking and research. It is not intended to make major changes in the presently successful series of academic offerings which stress educational basics and college preparation, said Ozar.

"As we prepare for the Twenty-First Century it is essential that we evaluate the content and methods of our educational program. We constantly are learning how people learn," Ozar said. "It has become increasingly clear over the past few years that learning is made easier if the student recognizes the goals of the course, the expected outcomes and the objectives to be met to realize the outcomes," she added.

Sister Diane O'Donnell, principal, said that the real success of any curriculum evaluation ultimately rests with the faculty.

CMS reports

The Chicago Medical School (CMS) presents its sixth broadcast year weekly radio program on Sunday, Nov. 13. The subject of the broadcast will be 'Smoking and Your Health'.

The program will be heard at 6 to 6:30 a.m. on WXLC (102.3FM); from 9:20 to 9:50 a.m. on WKRS (1220 AM); and from 12:20 to 12:50 p.m. on WKRS.

As the first flakes fly and wicked weather's in the wind, the department will be ready and rolling.

In the six-county North-eastern Illinois highway district, the department has 802 personnel and 287 trucks prepared—and 100 more trucks available—to spread salt and plow snow, Sec. of Transportation Gregory Baise said.

Ralph C. Wehner, the department's district engineer, said that the personnel and trucks will work on both the Chicago area expressway system and the 3,000 miles of state-maintained arterial highways in Cook, Lake, McHenry, DuPage, Kane and Will Counties.

They will work out of the 23 highway maintenance headquarters in the district, Wehner said.

The department will continue to emphasize the lower use of rock salt in order to lessen highway and environment damage, Charles McLean, district traffic and maintenance manager, said.

A total of 148,000 tons of salt—costing more than $2.6 million—was used last winter in the district, McLean added. "There were 40 snow warnings for the district, and the area got more than 42.6 inches of snow."

In preparation for this winter, the department's maintenance crews have been installing plow frames, along with tailgate and hopper spreaders, on the trucks.

All salt-spreading equipment is calibrated regularly, McLean said, to ensure an even distribution of salt and maintenance of environmental levels.

When the department's consulting meteorologist gives advance warning of the possible peril of wintry weather, the information goes to the communications center in the department's district headquarters in Schaumburg. It is relayed to the highway maintenance personnel who are organized for rotating 12-hour shifts.

In addition, the communications center is in radio contact with the personnel and trucks on the road.

With winter weather in prospect, McLean suggested that motorists begin thinking about winterizing their vehicle and added: "Important things to check include the cooling system, battery and windshield fluid reservoir, which should be filled with an anti-freeze solution."

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: It's time to set up a new budget and stick to it!

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr 19) Arrive at decisions now concerning your personal finances. Let someone in the know steer you toward wise decisions, but you must make your choices.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) If someone seems to be untrusting and skittish, it's because you've given them reason to behave this way around you. Show how loyal you can be.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Amend anything that isn't working in your business life. Respect the privacy of those you live with, even though you're feeling curious these days.

Cancer (June 21-Jul 20) A new Planetary alignment has you pulled in two directions; your heart is saying one thing, and your head another. Let Father Time work things out.

Leo (Jul 21-Aug 22) People who are more mature and worldly than you can help you put new ideas into motion. A friendly message may take you afar now. Pack with care.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Confusion, confusion, confusion! Things are not turning out the way you planned, but this will clear up soon. Be on your best behavior, and look sharp.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct 22) Unknown variables are trying to alter your travel plans, but do your best to roll with the punches. It's not wise to try something new at this time.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) An adviser you rely on constantly is out of touch with your feelings right now, so depend more on yourself. Finances shouldn't give you trouble now.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) New proposals require introspection before anything is done. You'll be wise to take up a new course of study to broaden your short spectrum.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Any urge to spend more than you can should be stifled. Seek the shelter of your home, and be happy there. Entertaining isn't wise at this time.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Your wisdom has fallen short as of late, and you are doing things your own way out of character because of someone else. Stick to your own methods!

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) An appearance in front of someone of authority will be pivotal regarding your future. Get rid of antiquated ideas, and look into the newer, modern world.

If you were born this week, there are ideas simply overflowing from your mind, and they are good ideas. But you need to surround yourself with the right people so you can get your thoughts out and make them workable. Don't let your emotions stifle your progress, as you are often apt to do.

OAKLEY

The Oakley is designed for economy in both space and construction cost. Growing families on a limited budget can get a full three-bedroom, two-bath home at a reasonable price. As income property, the Oakley can also be built as a duplex, with the second mirror-image unit attaching garage-to-garage.

The master bedroom offers small luxuries: a roomy closet and private bath. The sink is separate from the shower and toilet in a small dressing alcove next to the closet. One person can use the counter and closet while another takes a shower. The two smaller bedrooms across from the master suite share a full bath with tub and shower.

Counter space on four sides of the kitchen make for an efficient work area. Meals can be served directly into the informal dining room across an eating bar. An outside door provides access to the back patio for parties and barbecues.

It's only a few steps from car to counter when bringing in groceries-the garage door is right next to the kitchen. With another exterior door onto the back patio, the garage can also serve as a mudroom entry to the house in wet weather.

Recreation, television, reading, entertaining--all these functions combine in the living room, the Oakley's largest space. It's been left unadorned, but there is room for an entertainment center, a wood stove and hearth, and perhaps an additional door to the outside patio.

For a study plan of the Oakley (207-17), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2832, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

Lake County State's Attorney Fred Foreman has announced that 16 Waukegan residents have been indicted for felony offenses of Welfare Fraud by the Lake County Grand Jury.

The cases were presented by asst. state's attorneys working in conjunction with special agent James C. Logan of Regional Inspector General Michael Dyer's Office of Investigations, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services; and with investigator Thomas J. Pellicore, Bureau of Special Investigations, Ill. Dept. of Public Aid.

Foreman stated that the total amount of fraud uncovered in the investigation was well in excess of $150,000. He indicated that his office would seek full repayment of the fraudulently received benefits from all of the defendants, as well as other criminal sanctions.

Schools realizing savings were Zion Dist. 6 and 126, Millburn Dist. 24, Antioch Dist. 34, Gurnee Dist. 56, North Chicago Dist. 64 and 123, Evanston Dist. 65, Lake Bluff Dist. 65, Lake Forest

"I LOVE LUCI."

Six months ago Katie McKenna and her family moved to Lake County. They needed a new family doctor, so Katie called Luci at Condell's Doctors Office Connection, a physician referral service.

Unlike other referral services, D.O.C. goes far beyond using a computerized system to match a patient's special medical needs with a doctor. Luci also takes the time to match intangibles (such as a patient's personality and temperament) with one of our many talented and experienced specialists. And if it's urgent, we will schedule a doctor's appointment while you are on the line. It's this kind of personal attention that makes Luci and D.O.C. so special.

Just ask Katie.

And call Luci at DOC-2900, ext. 5610.

You'll love our healthy attitude.

Organize 4-H clubs for grade students

Something new is coming to Lake Villa schools. It is 4-H clubs. They are now being formed for students eight years old and up.

The clubs will be met on Saturday morning at Intermediate School. Grouping will be by age and topics of interest.

Starting in January a host of topics will be offered, including computer I, II and III; veterinary science; plants and soils; photography; passport to the world; adventures in reading; electricity and electronics, small engines and more.

Even parents are invited to join their children in taking some of the programs.

Leading most of the groups will be volunteers. They will cover the subject matter along with experts in each field.

Those who would like to help out in either area are asked to call the University of Illinois Extension office in Grayslake at (312) 223-8629.

"If there is enough response from both volunteers and the students 4-H will be offered year around," Supt. of Schools Peter Palombi said. He said 4-H was selected as an extra-curricular program to provide a new dimension of study and creative outlet for students.

This will replace a program offered through the College of Lake County. It was difficult for this program to assemble an adequate staff of volunteers and paid professionals, which caused the program to lose some of its zeal in the past year.

CONQUERING BUNIONS

Bunions often run in families. The tender, turnip-like bulge, usually on the big toe, is caused by enlargement of a bone joint.

Previous generations had to contend with bunion pain and appearance or undergo surgery, casts and long convalescence. Today, bunions are removed by modern methods that are effective and much more convenient.

24 HOUR ANSWERING SERVICE

Are you money smart?

Are you getting less than 6% on your regular savings account? ☐ YES ☐ NO

Are you paying a monthly service charge for your checking account? ☐ YES ☐ NO

Are you paying off a sizeable loan and not deducting the interest? ☐ YES ☐ NO

IF YOU CHECKED YES, THE ANSWER IS NO.

Most of us are smart about making money, even spending money, but not so smart about managing it. You don't have to be a financial wizard to appreciate the ways First American Bank can do more for your money. Like giving you CD rates on your regular savings. Or a free checking account with no minimum balance and no service charge. Or a Fixed Rate Home Equity Loan that allows you to borrow against the value of your home to restructure your debt and deduct the interest from your taxes.

So put your money where it'll work as hard as you do to earn it.
